SO ORDERED:

Hon. Paul E. Davison
United States Magistrate Judge

12/14/22

Re: Joint Request for Adjournment of the motion schedule in re: United States v. Onekey, LLC, et. al., No. 7:22-cr-00414-PED

Dear Judge Davison:

The parties write jointly to request a modification to the current motion schedule. Currently, Defendant's motions are due December 16, 2022, the government's opposition is due January 30, 2023, Defendant's reply is due February 13, 2023, and oral argument on the papers is scheduled for February 27, 2023. However, the government has proposed, and Defendant agrees, that a brief adjournment is necessary while the parties explore a potential resolution to the case. Therefore, we respectfully request that the Court modify the current schedule as follows:

- Defendant's Motions due January 13, 2023
- Government's Opposition due February 10, 2023
- Defendant's Reply due February 24, 2023
- Oral Argument on the Motions on or after March 10, 2023, at the Court's convenience

This amended schedule will give the parties adequate time to continue their discussions while still preserving the current trial start date of April 24, 2023 should those discussions prove unsuccessful.

We thank the Court for its time and attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Katten
